

Overcoming Buffaloes at Work & in Life

How to Increase Productivity, Overcome Setbacks and Stay Motivated Without Leaving Your Life Behind

Keynote Speaker: Kellen Moore, Former Bronco Quarterback

Featured presenter: Dr. Vincent Kituku

To succeed in today's workplace and in your personal life, you need more than goals, smarts or top technological tools. You must be passionate, highly motivated, and focused in every aspect of your organization. The competitive nature of the business world dictates that people must produce results in a fast changing marketplace for them and/or their organization to remain relevant. Individuals and their organization must be proactive in order to focus on measurable performance and eradicate frustration, stress and crisis. This seminar will help participants bring balance back to their lives. They will learn how to develop and leverage a personal vision that not only takes their work performance to new heights but also discover important strategies for creating an extraordinary quality of life.

Here is a sample of some of the key tools you will learn in this seminar and use immediately in major aspects of your work and life:

1. Discover America's uniqueness and how to take advantage of it
2. 9 actions that will make failing a non-option
3. How to manage perpetual workplace changes
4. The 7 must have 'Spears to Overcome Buffaloes' at work and in life
5. What assets to possess and develop as a maximum team player
6. Outrageously available resources you can use for your success
7. How to turn ordinary actions into extraordinary results at work and in life
8. Proven ways to turn setbacks into opportunities for a better future
9. How involvement in your community is related to your professional, spiritual and personal success—learn key insights about Dr. Kituk's involvement with BSU football team's success
